NEWFANE.

Trains Delayed by Sleet.

There was a fair attendance at the opening of the extension school Monday afternoon despite the fact that no trains passed over the railroad in time to accommodate passengers who had expected to reach Newfane in time to attend the afternoon session. The southbound passenger train due here at 8 a. m. did not leave Newfane until 5.15 p. m. The first delay occurred above Jamaica and was caused by ice and sleet which slid from the mountain down to the track and had to be dug out with picks by the workmen on the road. After reaching Townsend they were again delayed by the mixed train which had been delayed at Willard's crossing, necessitating the sending of a wrecking train from Brattleboro. The northbound passenger train due here at 6.45 p. m. was about two hours late.

A Pomona Grange meeting will be held in Newfane Feb. 26.

Mrs. Jeanette L. Gates has been ill with bronchitis the past few days.

Marcus Wellman, who has been at work in the Tibbets steam mill, left for Boston last week.

Since Saturday's storm a heavy crust has formed on top of the snow, which makes fine coasting.

Bert O. Davis has finished work in J. C. Tibbets's steam mill and is now at work on a lumber job for Earl E. Davis.

Mrs. W. A. Wilson began Monday to transport the four children who attend school from Wiswall hill to the union school. Previous to that the children that had been walking.

Miss Marie Williams and niece of New York came two weeks ago and are boarding at W. H. Knollton's. Miss Williams expects to occupy her new home now being built near West river, about Feb. 15.

Albert J. H. Jones was reported ill last week from a peculiar illness, is somewhat improved and is able to sit up a little while at a time. It is thought that he will recover from the neuritic attack that so suddenly seized him.

WE MAY NOT HAVE ENOUGH

On hand to fill every sweet tooth in town but as we are making candy every day we need to keep up with the demand. If we cannot there is such a thing as working overtime and before having anyone suffer for the want of the best candy that can be made we will put in even more time than we are doing. Such a variety, too. Those caramels we make have no superior in any market. A. E. Miller, candy kitchen, Main street.

OUR DISPLAY WINDOWS

Do not begin to tell the story of our stock of millinery. We carry one of the largest stocks of the kind in southern Vermont and there is not a hat, trimmed or untrimmed in our whole establishment that will not pass critical inspection either as to style or materials used, and the prices are made to give us quick sales and small profits and the customers complete satisfaction. Donnell & Davis, Main street milliners.

ALTHOUGH WINTER

Has by no means left this section of the country we have marked down about everything in our large stock of clothing to a point where we are satisfied that we shall not have to carry any of it over to next fall. Some of the bargains we are offering are the best we have ever given and that is saying a great deal for the markdown includes our regular stock of high grade clothing. Ambrose Knapp, Main street.

WHILE THERE IS SNOW

BELLOWS FALLS NEWS

Two Men Charged With Larceny.

The Greenfield police arrested William J. Barry and Thomas E. Lynch, who claim that their home is in Boston. It was reported to the police yesterday morning that two men were offering some cloth for sale on Deerfield street and the matter was looked into at once, with the result that there was found a quantity of cloth in the possession of each of the men. They admitted that they stole the goods from a freight car at Belloves Falls. They both claim they have been formerly employed by the railroad, but that they are out of employment and took this means of securing money. The goods were shipped, according to their story, from Belloves Falls, where they were stolen, to Mechanicsville and then brought back to Greenfield, where they were offered for sale.—Greenfield, Mass., correspondence in Springfield Republican of Wednesday.

Page's shoe store was sold Monday to G. F. Kent. It will be closed until Saturday for inventory, when it will be opened by the new proprietor with a mark-down sale. G. F. Kent, who has been the proprietor of the store for a year and a half, will travel for the Electric Cigar company. Mr. Kent formerly was a brakeman on the Boston & Maine road, and on account of the reduction in the number of trains was one of those who would either be out of work or be put on the spare list. For this reason he decided to go into business for himself.

The annual inspection and ball by Company E, V. N. G., will be held in Union hall Friday evening, Feb. 6.

At a special meeting of Alpha Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, in Masonic temple Tuesday evening, four candidates were initiated.

Three persons appeared before the judge of the municipal court Monday, two having been arrested for drunkenness and one for assaulting an officer. William Reil, who gave his address as Peterboro, N. H., was fined $5 and costs for drunkenness, which he did not pay, and was taken to jail for 15 days. Stephen Slattery, who gave his place of abode as Springfield, Mass., formerly of this place, was fined for a second offence $15 and costs of $4.54, which he paid. Edward Gorman of this place, who assaulted the officer while arresting Slattery, was sentenced to the house of correction for not less than one year or more than one year and three months, and to pay costs of prosecution. John Carroll of North Walpole was arraigned Tuesday morning for a breach of the peace at a dance held in Rockingham Friday evening, Jan. 30, and was fined $5 and costs of $5.29, which he paid.

Some people think that telling funny stories is a great accomplishment.

But the man who shirks in the school of experience is the one that calls for help over the rough places.

Many people would live next to Nature along with the flowers and the trees if they only had the means.

PUTNEY.

Edward W. Tarbell.

Edward W. Tarbell, 50, died at the home of Arthur Ladd in this village Friday morning of double pneumonia, after a few days' illness. After Mr. Tarbell became ill Mr. Ladd took him in, and the last few days he was given the care of a trained nurse.

Mr. Tarbell was born in Plymouth, Vt., Feb. 11, 1864, a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Tarbell. He leaves two daughters, Frances and Edna.

The funeral was held at the home of Mr. Ladd Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. A. F. Trice, pastor of the Baptist church officiating. The Sunday-side sextette sang three selections, Beautiful Isle of Somewhere, City Four Square, and Abide With Me. The burial took place in Mt. Pleasant cemetery. The bearers were Arthur Ladd, Wayland Ayers, Walter Smith and George Phelps.

Miss Lizzie S. Houghton is out, after a month's illness.

Lawrence S. Ayer was a guest a few days of his grandmother, Mrs. Lizzie Ayer.

Miss Ruth Robbins worked last week for Mrs. E. W. F. Dyer while she was teaching school.

William Wallace Washburn was at home from Dartmouth college a few days during the mid-year examinations.

Elwin E. Patterson was called to Brattleboro Monday morning on account of the death of his sister, Mrs. Abbie Moran.

Remember Go-to-Church Sunday, which will be observed next Sunday, Feb. 8, in both the Congregational and Baptist churches.

Mr. Merriam, first violinist in the Mt. Hermon orchestra, will be here Sunday to help in the service at the Congregational church. He and Mr. Underwood will render selected music.

Miss Sylvia Derry, teacher of the fifth and sixth grades, was ill last week with tonsillitis and Mrs. E. W. F. Dyer substituted for her in the school.

Mr. Underwood, who is supplying the pulpit of the Congregational church, went from here Monday to Brattleboro, where he joined the Mt. Hermon glee club, of which he is a member, as place of abode as Springfield, Mass.

The pupils of the ninth grade and high school went on a sleighride to Saxtons River Friday night. Frank Townsend furnished conveyance and supper was served at the hotel at Saxtons River. The evening was warm and all enjoyed the ride, reaching home at a late hour. Miss Martin and Miss Young, the teachers, chaperoned the young people.

Rev. S. F. Goodheart of St. Johnsbury Centre, who came to the Congregational church last Thursday evening to preach again by request of the church committee, was much liked by those who heard him. He gave a practical sermon on the love of Christ for the church and the peculiar part the church plays in every community.

Mr. Goodheart is a broad minded man and an optimist and will be successful, being endowed with these good qualities, in whatever field he chooses to labor.

The pupils of district No. 5 are again learning domestic science this winter in a practical way. On Friday a dinner was cooked by the pupils and teacher and served to 10 persons, including the superintendent, who was visiting schools. The dinner consisted of oyster stew, crackers, piccadilly, orange jelly with cream, and coffee, and this was done without interfering in any way with the regular lessons.

The pickle was made by the pupils last fall, as they had a good amount of canned things on exhibition.

WHEN SLIDING BY

Slip into Sherry's restaurant on Main street hill and get a cup of coffee to insure your safety of mind. We are perfectly willing to discuss the weather if you feel the need of that as well as something good to eat at most any old time, day or night. Cooking is what makes things taste good and when it comes to cooking there is no other place in town that can produce better. Sherry's restaurant on Main street hill.

THE RADIOPTION

Is just as effective as the stereopticon and does not require the expensive slides that must be used with the stereopticon. Any of the numerous styles of this picture projecting apparatus require only a photograph. The machines are made for lighting by electricity, or where that is not obtainable, acetylene may be used. We have a very complete line of them and shall be glad to show them. Jordan & Son, Optometrists, Elliot street.

WE ARE DOING BUSINESS

In temporary quarters on Elliot street just as we were doing it before the fire that destroyed the Grange block. The carpenters and painters are busy ready for us again but in the meantime we are meeting all demands for our special lines of coffees, teas, spices and other things we handle. Direct Importing Co., where you see the signs on Elliot street.

A PLACE TO LAY YOUR HEAD

When tired without musing up the bed your wife has made is to be found on a great big comfortable lounge. We have them in all sorts of makes, styles, sizes and prices. The coverings may be what you order as to quality, material and color. There isn't a home in Brattleboro where a big couch or a lounge is out of place. If you have one you certainly want one of those you may purchase of Moran & Co., furniture.

SOMETHING DOING.

Just to keep something doing through the dull season we are offering at special reduced prices building lumber, hemlock boards, doors and other various kinds of lumber. If you are in the market for such material you will find it greatly to your advantage to see Holden & Martin, Frost street.

NORTHFIELD, MASS.

Founder's Day Thursday.

Founder's day, Feb. 5, will be observed as a holiday at both Moody schools. W. R. Moody will conduct a service at Mount Hermon at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon in the chapel and one at Sage chapel at the seminary the latter part of the afternoon. Ten of the trustees of the schools are expected to be present, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Froctor, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Perry and Miss Priscilla Perry of Boston, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Perry and daughter of Westbury, R. I., and Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Palmer of New London, Conn. Some of the trustees will speak on the life of the founder of the schools, D. L. Moody.

Following this service at Sage chapel at 4.45 there will be a recital to which the public is cordially invited. The program will consist of eight numbers and will include the Andante from the Fifth Symphony of Beethoven and the Adagio from Mendelssohn's Scotch Symphony. Miss Angell will be the organist, Miss Miller violinist and Mrs. C. E. Dickerson pianist. This is the first of a series of four recitals to be given this winter.

Mrs. Rowena Randall.

Mrs. Rowena Randall, 90, widow of Joel Randall, died at the Betts sanatorium in Athol Jan. 29, where she went last fall for special care. The funeral was held in the home of her son, Clarence Randall, on Maple street this town, Sunday at 2 o'clock, Rev. H. L. Buzzell officiating. The burial took place in the Center cemetery.

Mrs. Randall, one of the oldest persons in this town, was born in Berwick, Me., Oct. 2, 1824. Sixty-five years ago she was married to Joel Randall of Gill and they came here to live. Mr. Randall died in 1888. Mrs. Randall leaves, besides the son, Clarence, with whom she made her home here, a son, Clinton, of New Haven, and daughter, Mrs. John Angell, in Omaha, Neb.; also two grandchildren. Mrs. Randall's failing health for several years kept her from participating in the activities of the town, but formerly she was active in the interests of the Unitarian society.

Mrs. A. P. Pitt is recovering from bronchitis.

Mrs. Henry McLean came from Jamaica to stay over Sunday at D. E. Lyman's.

Fred Jones has a pair of golden pheasants from a breeder in South Sudbury. He will endeavor to raise a stock of these rare birds.

On Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Moody will entertain the senior classes of both the seminary and Mount Hermon schools at their home.

The Friendship club of the Northfield will meet at the Northfield hotel this week Saturday for 10 days. About 20 of the members are expected this time.

The meeting of the Grange next Tuesday will be an entertainment by the children, under the direction of Miss Marion Holton, Miss Elsie Field, Clifford Field and Ernest Steiner.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Walker entertained the senior class of the seminary, about 50 in number, at supper at their home Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Walker are honorary members of the seminary class.

The Fortnightly will continue the study of Venezuela at the meeting Monday. A paper on Jane Addams and Her Moral Crusades also will be presented. The committee in charge is Mrs. W. W. Coe, Mrs. M. T. Moore, Mrs. B. F. Field, Mrs. G. T. Thompson and Miss Gertrude Ball.

The Y. M. C. A. group met at the home of their president, Henry Foreman, Saturday evening and were entertained by him with an account of India, in which country he has spent most of his life. He is now a student of Mount Hermon. The talk on local game birds and animals by Anson Howard was much appreciated.

The Sunday school classes of Rev. and Mrs. N. Fay Smith enjoyed a delightful program at the church vestry Friday evening. About 80 were served to an excellent oyster supper. H. M. Verrington was toastmaster and these toasts were given: The men's class, H. S. Stone; our sons, W. H. Waite; our daughters, Mrs. E. F. Howard; our guests, Rev. N. Fay Smith; for membership, E. F. Howard. Later the men competed in a button-sewing contest and the women in driving nails. Songs were given by Miss Sophie Brooks, and the quartet of the men's class.

"For the land's sake—use Bowker's Fertilizers. They enrich the earth and those who till it."
